

About Marsh's Private Client Services

Marsh's Private Client Services understands the importance of protecting the people and things you care about. Through insurance product expertise, personalized service, and access to preferred group rates for eligible individuals, we provide clarity, choice, and value to clients making their important home and auto coverage decisions.

As a leader in personal insurance and risk management in Canada, we recognize how complex insurance can be — and we know shopping around for it isn't most people's favourite pastime. That's why our licensed insurance brokers do the work for you.

Our goal is to help you find the right answers and provide the support you need to feel confident in your home and auto insurance, as well as additional coverage options like pet insurance, travel, and identity restoration services insurance.

With Marsh on your side, you have the strength and stability of a national brokerage that represents your best interests.
